Come on in and Make Yourself at Home at Mark Arts' Rodeo Drive

WICHITA, Kan. – Mark Arts is hosting its third Rodeo Drive event, and this year's theme will be "Home Edition," featuring home accessories and furnishings.

The event, which will take place January 31 at the new Hinkle Law Building in The Waterfront, is a fundraiser for Mark Arts. Community volunteers Bonnie Bing Honeyman and Polly Gentry are serving as co-chairs for the event.

Guests will spend an evening in the epicenter of luxury home goods without leaving Wichita. Tasteful pieces in an array of price points and designs have been generously donated by local style mavens. Prices start at $10 and will be 80 percent or more off retail.

Additionally, Mark Arts will have professional decorators on hand to advise shoppers on their choices. Professional movers will be on site to assist guests with transporting their new finds.

Tickets are available online at MarkArtsKS.com/RodeoDrive. Tuesday evening will offer the best selection and party atmosphere. Rodeo Drive will reopen to the public 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. February 1.
